

Basic Course “Train the Trainer” (PER-200): Managing Civil Actions in Threat Incidents (MCATI)

This train-the-trainer course provides State and local law enforcement agencies with the knowledge and skills necessary to prepare for and successfully mitigate threat incident involving civil disorder. The course combines classroom instruction and numerous field exercises to allow the students to apply the concepts and tactics in a controlled environment. The program provides instruction in a historical perspective of civil disturbances, mobile field force team tactics, crowd behavior, demonstrator tactics, room and store entries, vertical building patrol, use of force during civil disturbances, special threats, mass arrest, less lethal munitions, and riot control agent familiarization for use during civil disturbances, and concludes with a culmination exercise. Upon completion of the Train-the-Trainer course, participants are then eligible to conduct (indirect) courses for their agency and surrounding jurisdictions.
